

Kaitlin Groundwater began fly fishing at a young age chasing smallmouth bass in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley. She furthered her fly fishing pursuits after college working at the Orvis Store in Woodbridge, VA where she taught fly casting and tying courses. During this time, she also taught several on the water fly fishing schools, instructing on both trout and bass fishing techniques. Kaitlin then headed West where she managed the Orvis Endorsed fly fishing lodge Madison Valley Ranch in Ennis, Montana and explored Southwest Montana's finest trout fisheries including the Madison, Yellowstone, Big Hole, and Missouri Rivers. Kaitlin has since come back to her east coast fly fishing roots and will share her extensive fly fishing experiences for FSFF members.

Open to the public with no entrance fee, the club meetings will be held at the Free State Fly Fishers' club house located at the Davidsonville Family Recreation Center, 3789 Queen Anne Bridge Road, Davidsonville, Maryland. Come and join us for an informational night on fly fishing. The Free State Fly Fishers meetings occur on the first Wednesday of the month, except for the months of June, July and August.
