On Saturday, April 15th, come and join Mike, Larry, John and Mark and your fellow Free State Fly Fishers and learn about the following for a host of Delaware and Maryland Eastern Shore ponds:

- Name of pond, its physical location and where you can launch your watercraft
- Which fish species you can catch during each of the four seasons
- Recommended fly patterns matched up with specific species and seasons
- Where to fly fish on each of the ponds
- Where to cast for that next strike.
